BALTIMORE, Md. Nov. 4.—One of the most representative throngs hat ever crowded the Pimilico track itnessed the running of the property of th lico Futurity this afternoon.

Jockey Albert Johnson, astride of Blossom Time, a rank outsider, won the first division, and then repeated in the second half of the turf's richest stake for 2-year-olds with Sally Alley.

Long before the bugie sounded to call the horses from the paddock for the first race the stands were crowded. By the time the field paraded over the steeplechase line overy available foot of space of the famous Hilltop track was jammed

Arnold and Walp Feature Blue and Gold Triumph At Charlottesville

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., Nov. -Virginia's 22-to-5 victory over Washington and Lee, marking renewal of athletic relations after 15 years, was seen by the largest crowd ever assembled on Lambeth Field.

Two long runs by Arnold, one for 25 yards and a touchdown enabled Virginia to score in the first five minutes. The Generals came back strong, and took advantage of W son's fumble to score by the air route. Mattox passing across the goal line to Thomas. As the fourth quarter opened the wall tightened a foot from the line but Taliaferro made a bad kick out and Maphis got a fair catch on the 15-yard line. Here Fenwick booted over a field goal. A few minutes later, Foster intercepted a pass and ran 35 yards and three plays after he shot a pass

Song of the Sportsman

Our effort is to give our all.
In valiant hope that we will wit.
But if, by chance, we come to fall,
We hold no failure as a sis.
But rather, with a stouter heart
That sees no reason to despond,
We gather for another start
Against the day that waits beyond.

To knew the prize is not our creed:

Tor we have found rewards will wait
Somewhere, sometime, above our need,
So long as we can face our fate
With unbowed band, without a tear.

Resardless of the goal at stake,
With seels that have forgotten fear
And hearte that heaven couldn't break.
